

On 20 and 21 November 2024, together with the European Urban Initiative (EUI), URBACT will host an EU City Lab in Bucharest (RO). This will be the second EU City Lab focused on ...

GREEN ENERGY EXPO & ROMENVIROTEC, has established itself on the Romanian market as the largest renewable energy and waste & water management fair, benefit. Green Energy Expo & ...

This event is a must-attend for energy professionals, investors, policymakers, urban developers, technology companies, startups, NGOs, and local authorities interested in the future of ...

"The adoption of sustainable practices and access to renewable energy sources require a concerted effort from society. That is why we continue our initiative to promote top solutions for public ...

Electrica signed today a Memorandum of Understanding with Romgaz regarding the joint development of renewable energy production and storage capacities with a total installed capacity of ...

The "Education and practice in energy efficiency in buildings" project addresses the problem of the energy inefficiency of buildings through a mix of education and practical action.

Since July 2014, Electrica, the Group's holding company, has been listed on the Bucharest and London stock exchanges, with a majority private capital. It is the only Romanian listed company with ...

It's certified as a green energy supplier, entering the energy market as the first 100% green energy supplier, with origin certificates, contributing to the Romanian 2050 objective, of zero ...

This year's conference brings together policymakers, investors, technology leaders, and major energy consumers to explore the next steps toward a resilient and climate-neutral energy system.

With Romania pledging in Brussels that 36.2% of its energy consumption should come from renewable sources by 2030, PressOne spoke to energy expert Corina Murafa to find out how ...

Bucharest green electricity

Web: <https://upstreamjhb.co.za>

