

Buffett Solar Generator

What happened to a former solar power executive?

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) -- A former executive of a California solar power company was sentenced Tuesday to 6 1/2 years in prison and ordered to pay nearly $620 million in restitution for his role in a $1 billion fraud scheme, federal prosecutors said.

Does Warren Buffett make smart decisions?

Warren Buffett seems to always make smart decisions. He knows to say no to just about everything. He knows how to hire the right people. He believes wholeheartedly (pun intended) in the importance of deciding whom to marry. But -- like the rest of us -- he doesn't get every decision right.

Should DC Solar buy generators and lease them back to DC Solar?

But executives started telling investors they could benefit from federal tax credits by buying the generators and leasing them back to DC Solar, which would then provide them to other companies for their use, prosecutors said.

But -- like the rest of us -- he doesn't get every decision right. Case in point: Berkshire Hathaway's $340 million investment in DC Solar, the solar generator company founded by Jeff and ...

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) -- A former energy executive in California who took part in $1 billion solar power fraud that bilked Warren Buffett's company and many others was sentenced ...

That's what a former energy executive in California was sentenced to serve on Tuesday, after participating in a $1 billion solar power fraud, The Associated Press reported. Robert A. ...

In total, DC Solar closed transactions with investors that contributed an aggregate of more than $912 million to purchase generators. Those transactions purportedly involved ...

The husband-and-wife owners of DC Solar, a California solar company that caused Warren Buffett's Berkshire Hathaway Inc to take a $377 million charge last year, pleaded guilty on ...

Some 9,000 of the approximately 17,000 generators that DC Solar claimed to have made didn't exist, according to the U.S. Attorney's Office. Among those suckered by the business were ...

(Bloomberg) - The co-owner of a California-based solar company was sentenced to 30 years in prison for running a $1 billion Ponzi scheme that attracted big-name investors, among them ...

Jeff Carpoif invented the Solar Eclipse. Think of it as a giant battery on a trailer covered in solar panels that offered portable, renewable power. Rather than relying on a polluting diesel ...

Buffett Solar Generator

Web: <https://upstreamjhb.co.za>

