

Dublin Solar-Powered Containerized Mobile Drone Depot

Plans by Manna Drones to retain a drone delivery hub for Coolmine Industrial Estate in Dublin 15 are facing local opposition.

Plans to expand drone delivery services across Dublin have been unveiled. Some residents, however, have expressed concerns over noise and safety.

From January 2024, shoppers in Dublin will have the option to place orders for drone-delivered goods. Shoppers in Dublin will be able to get drone deliveries next year. Regulators...

By bypassing road traffic, drone deliveries can significantly cut wait times and reduce emissions, offering a faster and more sustainable alternative to traditional delivery methods, particularly suited to ...

This future, once the stuff of science fiction, is rapidly becoming a reality, with plans for a new drone delivery hub in south Dublin being just the latest sign of this transformative shift.

We strive to support businesses by developing tailored solutions that optimize drone usage while ensuring safety and compliance in the ever-evolving aviation landscape.

Customers can order from popular local restaurants such as Musashi, WOWBurger, Boojum and Elephant & Castle, with meals flown straight to their doorsteps by drone. The drones are ...

By centralizing expertise and resources, the Drone Unit aims to streamline operations, ensure compliance with regulations, and drive forward the adoption of emerging technologies in drone ...

Drone delivery might still feel futuristic in many parts of the world, but in one Irish town, it's already part of everyday life. Manna Aero, a Dublin-based startup, is now completing up to 80 ...

Around 200 people have attended a public meeting in Dundrum this evening to address local concerns surrounding a planning application for a mobile drone delivery hub in the Dublin suburb.

Dublin Solar-Powered Containerized Mobile Drone Depot

Web: <https://upstreamjhb.co.za>

