

In inspiring other cities worldwide, Brussels sets the stage for a greener future, prioritizing the well-being of residents and the environment. Brussels' commitment to limiting cars and fostering ...

Understand Sustainability in Brussels by reading this complete guide. From eco-friendly buildings and initiative to top companies innovating.

The Climate Plan aims to make the City of Brussels a greener, more biodiversity-friendly place. Find out about all the help and support you can receive to encourage biodiversity:

Flooding, heat islands, loss of biodiversity: in Brussels, the effects of climate change are already very real. In order to play its part in lightening change and developing adaptive solutions, the City of ...

Brussels Environment is responsible for designing and implementing regional policies in all matters related to the environment. Every day, its teams work to make Brussels a more pleasant and ...

The city has set ambitious goals to reduce CO2 emissions and promote green technology. By integrating renewable energy sources, improving public transportation, and fostering ...

Come along on one of our walking tours in Brussels and discover surprising projects and initiatives that are making the city greener, cleaner, and more sustainable.

We help you to improve your environment, your quality of life in Brussels and facilitate the transition. Our values are respect, innovation and responsibility.

Discover Brussels' ambitious plans for a livable city and a climate-resilient future, in partnership with Sweco.

Brussels is green, cosmopolitan, friendly, festive and thrilling and is the ideal destination to experience a sustainable brand of tourism. The Brussels-Capital Region is a pioneer of sustainable and ...

Environmental sustainability brussels

Web: <https://upstreamjhb.co.za>

