Came back by it's self. It was only the consumption.

Does pvoutput accept consumption data?

Now PVOutput suddenly won't accept consumption data though it accepts production. A quick reset of the router, and Voila! it works again. Strangest thing User #111600 7574 posts

Do I need a computer to access pvoutput?

Have a Tranergy inverter and Positronics installed a box under meter which directs everything from solar system to Pvoutput.org. Accordingly there is no need for me to have computer on for the upload of data, which I can obtain on my return home.
