

This Energy Efficiency Master Plan (EEMP) of Tajikistan represents the first documented energy efficiency strategy of the country. It offers package of policy instrument and measures that will ...

New and retrofitted buildings in Tajikistan must meet energy efficiency standards, which are reviewed every five years, and include metering in energy passports.

A country that continues to deal with dire energy shortages, if Tajikistan can continue to attract attention from foreign investors, it can not only build out a crucial sector but also diversify ...

While Tajikistan maintains a leading position in terms of installed renewable energy capacity, other countries in the region are also showing impressive growth.

Each document is closely interlinked, and together they offer solution for ensuring reliable and affordable energy supply as a main prerequisite for enhanced economic development and reduction of poverty ...

Tajikistan is one of the most energy-intensive countries in the region. Aging heating systems, poorly insulated buildings, and inefficient technologies in agriculture and industry all ...

Tajikistan has reached nearly 100% electrification--a rare achievement among developing nations. However, a new global report warns that major gaps remain in heating, energy reliability, ...

Tajikistan energy efficiency

Web: <https://upstreamjhb.co.za>

